

Mission

COLS coordinates and supports interdisciplinary research and community engagement activities which increase our understanding of lifestyle choices contributing to health and wellness. Primary purposes of the Centre are to understand the personal, social, economic and environmental benefits associated with pursuing healthy lifestyles.

Sponsors

